Love
John

Dearest Wendie,

We've had so many great times together. I'm very glad that Nobody has come between our wonderful friendship. I remember ~~that~~ signing your yearbook last year at Truman and I didn't really care to. But this year I wanted to. We were enemies and Now we are the Best of friends ever. It's funny how feelings change towards people. I hope our friendship grows more and more through the years. Because with the Lups, God knows that they can be cruel. This Summer is going to be Great. We have to try to stay out of trouble this time. Can't make Mom made now, can we?!

Thankyou for Being here most of the time when I need you. Times are getting harder for me now, so you can help me pull through.

I love you sons, love your (schools out for the) sister,
Summer, ya! #Jamar #

In Memory of Mrs. Rebecca Krause

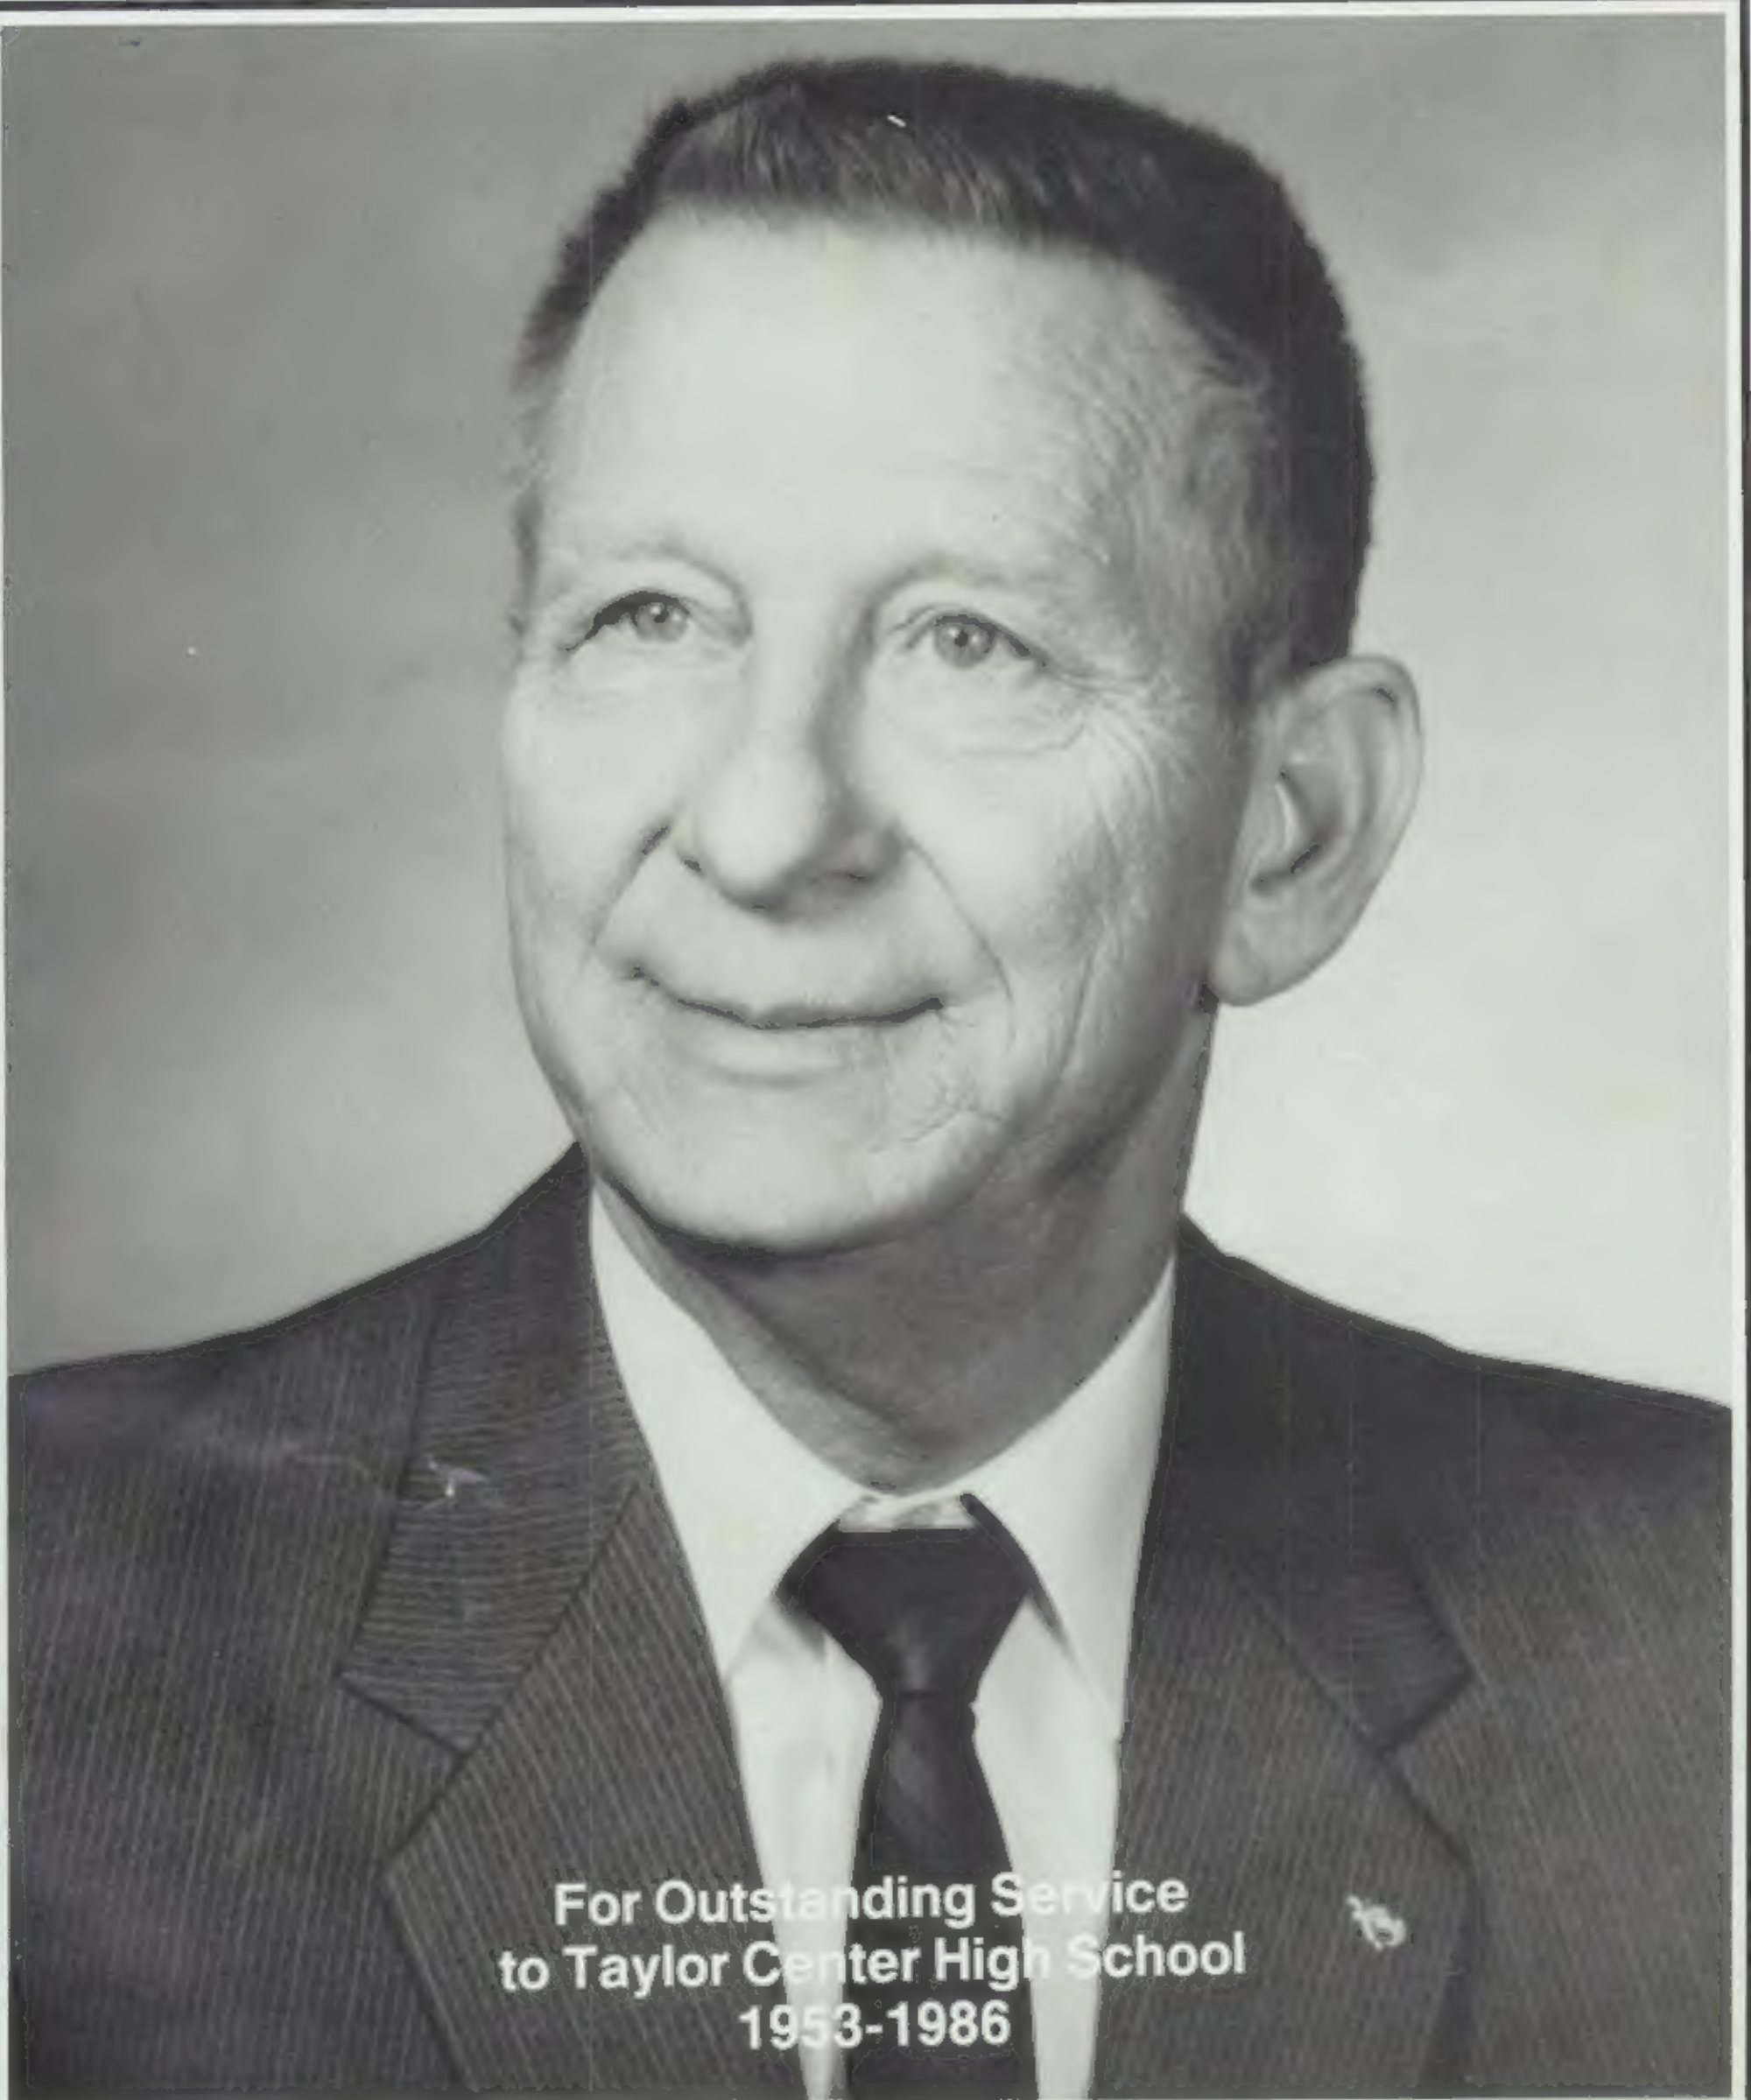

Mrs. Rebecca Krause, a long time T.C.H.S. teacher, passed away on Friday, October 18, 1985 from complications following open heart surgery.

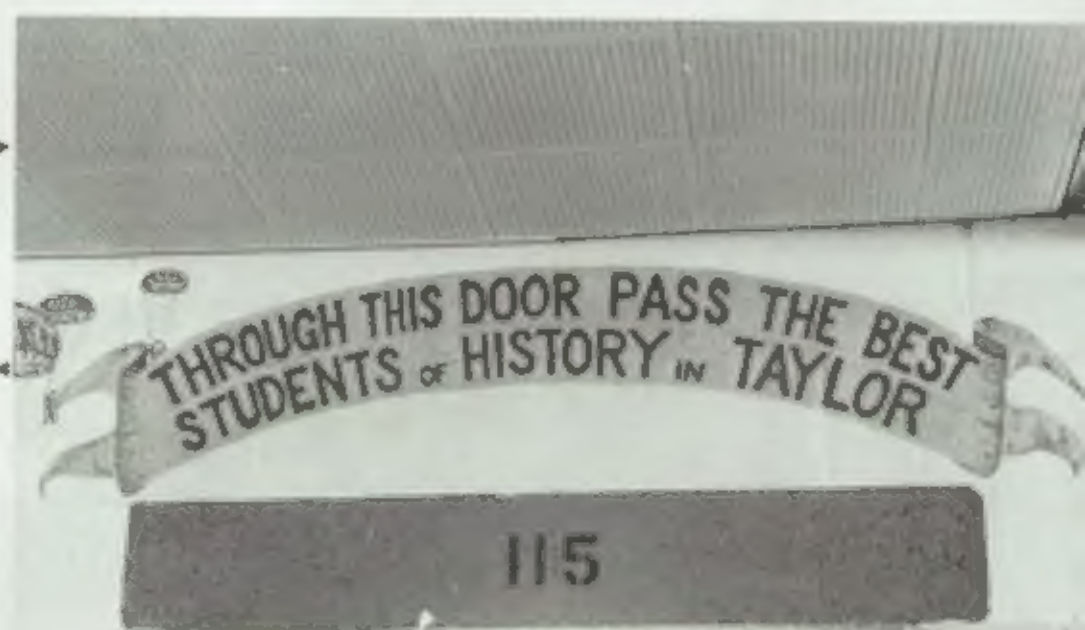

Mrs. Krause came to Taylor Center High School in 1959. During her career at T.C.H.S., she taught more than 3600 students.

Mrs. Krause was an active member of the Taylor Center faculty. She was personally concerned about her students and was very much interested in student life at T.C.

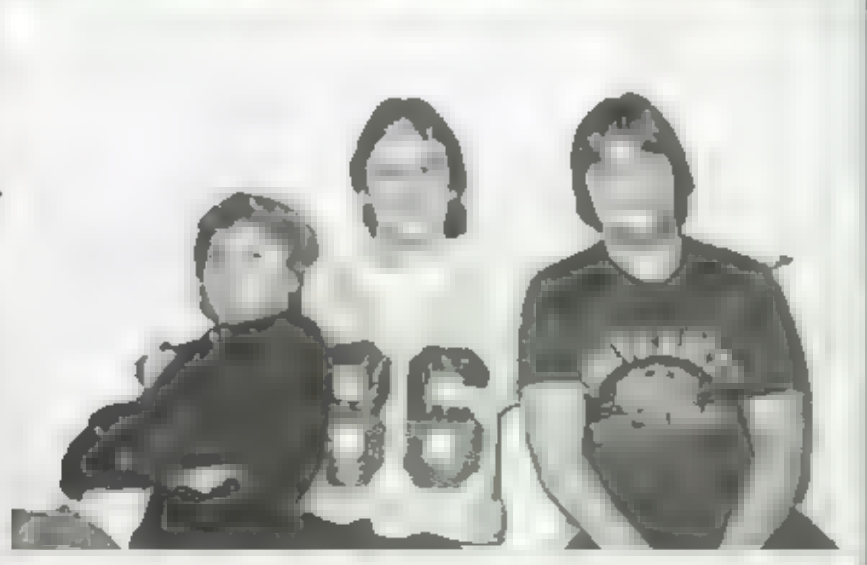

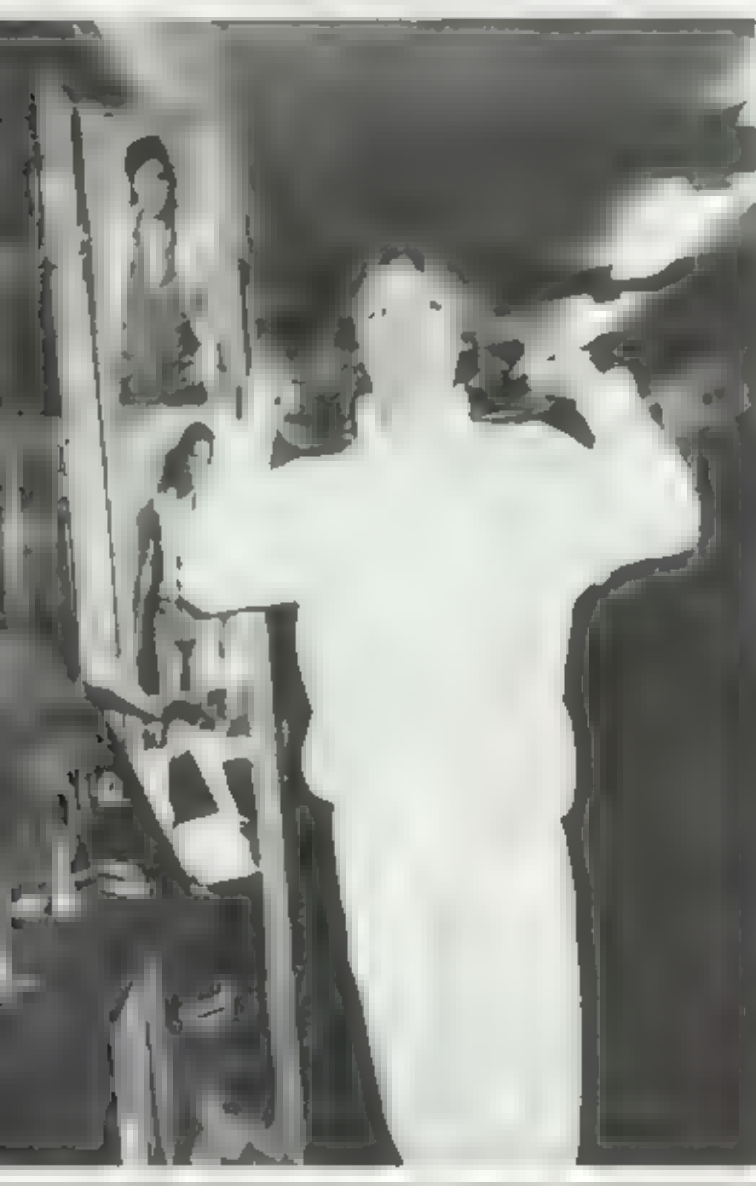

The entire staff and student body were saddened by her passing. She will be remembered as a warm, loving teacher who added to the lives of everyone who knew her.

Dedicated to Mr. Thomas R. Clarke

1. Char Adams does a cheer for the crowd. 2. Kelly Marshall, Tim Reimer, and Beth Gurskey socialize before class. 3. Mr. Jack Maynard wholeheartedly endorses this sign above his room door. 4. Blake Beck and Roger Bailey prepare to dance. 5. Christie McCarthy finished the ice cream eating contest during Spirit Week.

Tom Boyd, Kim Carl, and Diane Schmitt express their friendship. Mary Canterbury waits for the Grease Medley to begin. Danny Tonn and Sandy Gilliam are waiting for Mr. Thomas's class to begin. Jane Alford has a really interesting locker. Robert Wright, Tony McAuley and Edward Korte relax in the cafeteria.

Homecoming Assembly

by Allan Mortensen

On September 28, 1985, Taylor Center gymnasium was transformed into a mystical wonderland. Mr. M. Turcheck and Mary Smith guided energetic work crews to complete the transformation in time for the Homecoming Assembly.

As in past years, the Homecoming Assembly was exciting — especially when Principal Robert Haarala stretched the tension before naming Jacqueline Gwess 1985 Homecoming queen. Jackie was escorted by Al Mortensen.

Members of the Court were Deborah Armstrong, escorted by Scott Foster, Beth Boike, escorted by Walt Gibson, Toni Almas, escorted by Roger Bailey and Rhonda Mandernach, escorted by Ken Owens.

Homecoming Half-Time Activities

by Al Mortensen

The Homecoming half-time activities at Taylor Center on September 29, 1985, were more than spirited. Homecoming queen Jacqueline Gwess and the 1985 Homecoming Court rode around the football field in three beautiful convertibles, and all the girls were escorted by their fathers.

All four classes put in a fine effort on their floats, but the Junior Class proved to be the best. The Junior Class float was awarded first place.

The Rams football team made it a perfect day. They defeated the Romulus Eagles for the third consecutive Homecoming win.

All the Homecoming Activities added up to make the 1985 Homecoming celebration a truly memorable event.

Homecoming Dance

by Allan Mortensen

The 1985 Homecoming Dance held in Taylor Center High School's cafeteria proved to be a very exciting evening for all who attended. The theme "Forever" set a romantic mood as couples swayed to music provided by a disc jockey. While reminiscing with friends and enjoying the atmosphere, numerous special moments were shared. The highlight of the night was the Court Dance.

As the evening progressed, many of the couples met at favorite restaurants for a final moment together.

POWDER PUFF '85

The annual Powder Puff football game between the senior girls against the underclass girls was played during 6th hour on October 19, 1985. Corporal Don Portice and Mrs. Pat Shetler coached the Senior girls' team, and Mr. Jerry Holt and Frank Lucas coached the underclass girls. The senior girls demonstrated their superior ability and won the game. However, there were several casualties ... at least one broken fingernail and most of the girls got really dirty and muddy. Mr. Portice and his assistant, Woody Woodward, were very intense about the game.

The referee was Mr. Mickey Turcheck, who was kept very busy avoiding being trampled by the chaotic swarming of two teams during every play. Everyone had a good time, and most of the girls felt the game was well worth the effort. Several of the senior boys took over cheerleading duties and did a creditable job.

HAUNTED HALL OF DOOM

Taylor Center's Haunted Hall of Doom, run by Senior Advisor, Mr. David Giles and the Senior Class, was a great success and a great money maker. The Haunted Hall of Doom was open to the public who were admitted after paying the entry fee.

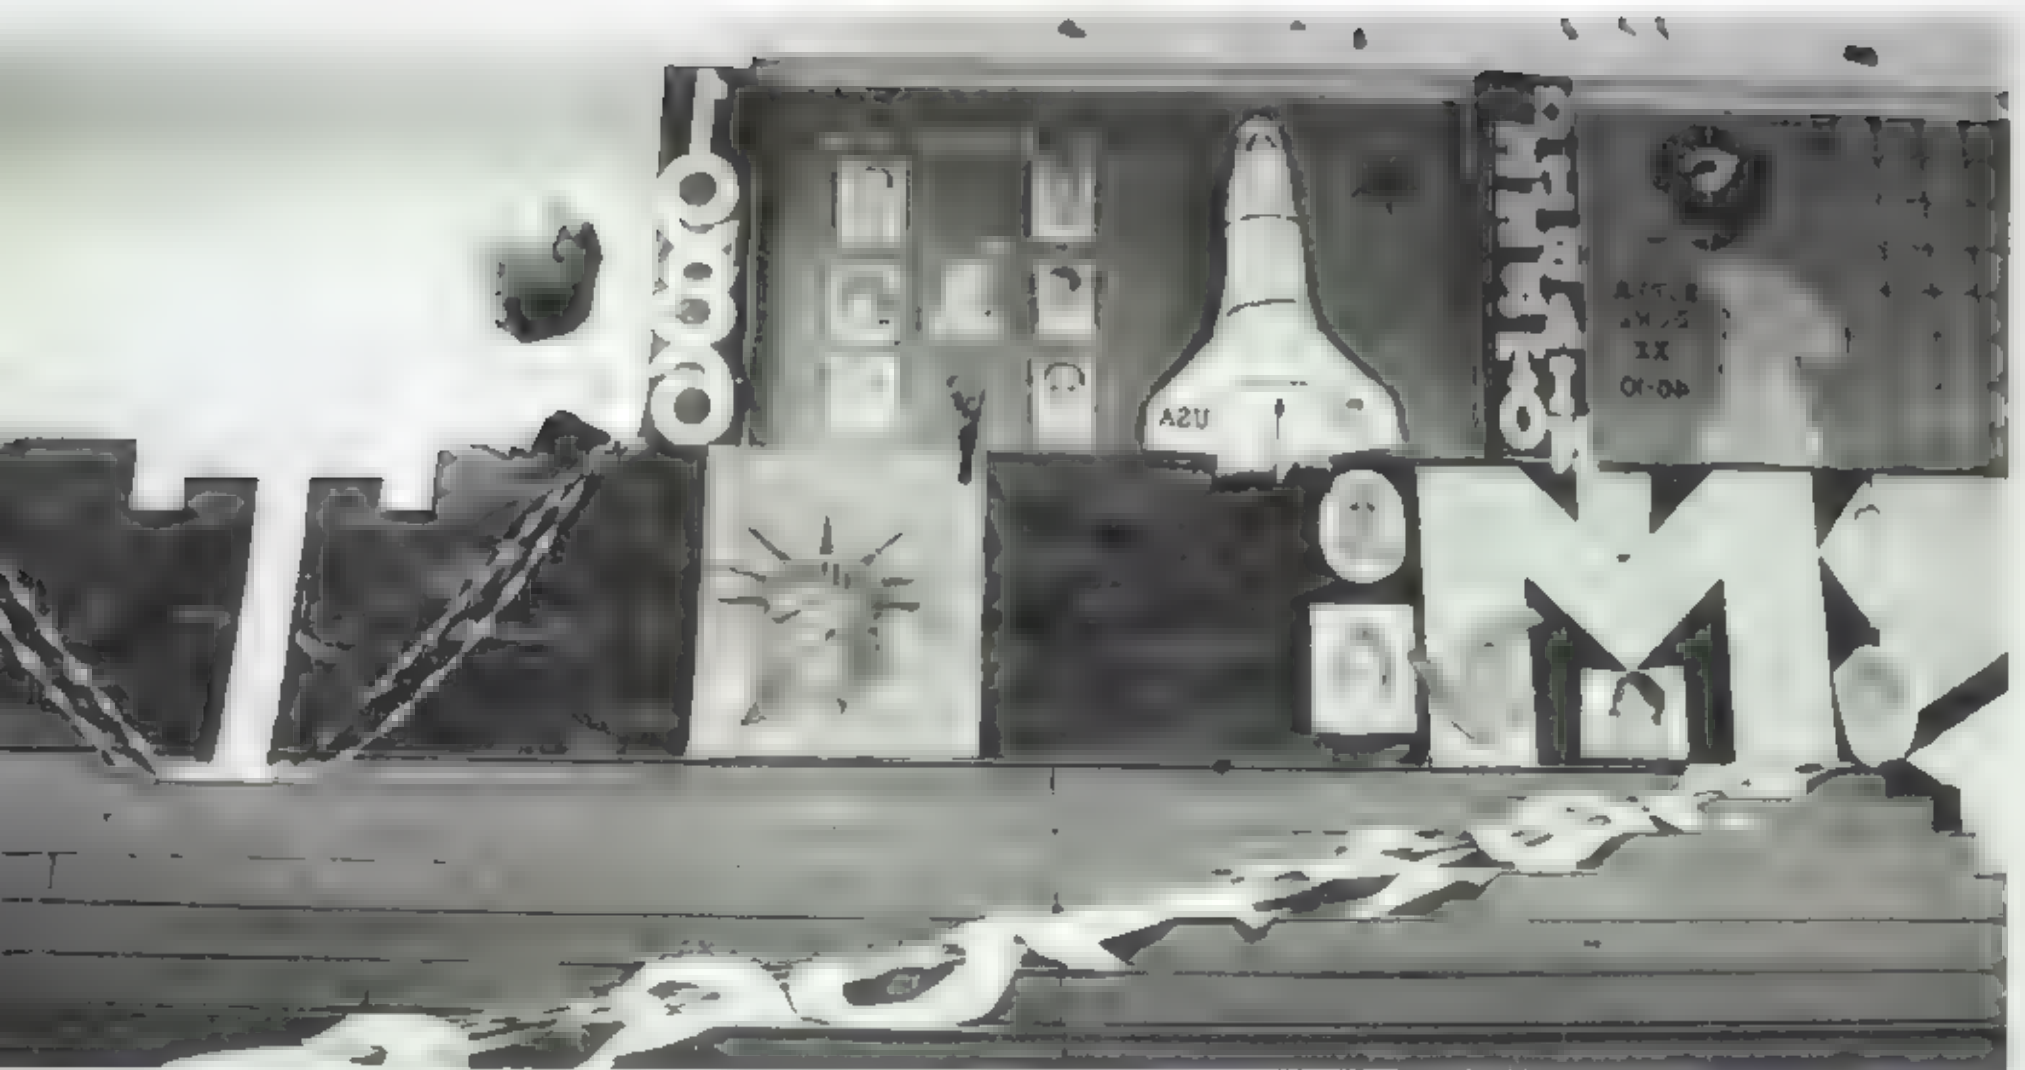

The exhibits turned the science hall into a terrifying maze full of monsters, alien beings, and horrible traps. Small children cried and clutched their parents while adults found themselves decidedly unnerved.

Because of the location, the Haunted Hall of Doom was dismantled and then reassembled every day. The enthusiastic spirit of the senior class was evident because of the tremendous amount of work they were willing to spend to make the exhibit a success.

- 1 Haunted Hall participants listen as Mr. Giles gives instructions.
- 2 Lori McKenna and Paula Woods stretch to clean up the horrendous mess.
- 3 Coreen Love takes her daily beauty nap.
- 4 Terry Holt, Don Alchin, Coreen Love, and Scott Foster, some of the fearsome monsters in the maze.
- 5 Coreen Love and Lena Harden try to make their way through the disastrous science hall.

Student Council

by Jackie Gwess

The 1985-86 Student Council has helped organize the Homecoming Assembly, Spirit Week, and the Powder Puff football game. They held the first Halloween and Christmas Dance. The Blood Bank was a success beating last year. Swing-Out was a memorable experience. They helped with fundraisers and commencement

The Student Council consisted of four officers and five representatives from each class..

Class of '86 — Officers & Reps

The Senior class officers and representatives planned and worked together on the Senior Float for Homecoming, the Haunted Hall of Doom, Spirit Week, the Senior Variety Show, and the Senior Prom. With the help of Advisor, Mr. David Giles, the Seniors had a very memorable and productive year. Chosen in May, 1985, to represent the Class of '86 were Scott Foster, president, Toni Almas, vice-president, Al Mortensen, treasurer, and Beth Boike, secretary. The representatives were Jackie Gwess, Jenni Warner, Coreen Love, Jeff Patterson, and Rob Jamula.

Class of '87

The officers and representatives of the Junior class have worked hard to raise money and plan events for the '85-'86 school year. They have been showing a lot of spirit and enthusiasm.

Class officers are President Sonya Suponcic, Vice President Ron Gaedke, Secretary Michelle Marody, and Treasurer Bill Green.

Class representatives are Mike Schofield, Debbie Tosh, Crystal Tormino, and Kamila Yanchula

1. Junior officers are Ron Gaedke, Sonya Suponcic, Bill Green, and Michelle Marody. 2 Mike Schofield, Crystal Tormino, Debbie Tosh, and Kamila Yanchula are Junior representatives. 3. 1 Bill Green, Ron Gaedke, Sonya Suponcic, and Michelle Marody did a fine job as class officers. 2 Michele Marody and Bill Gaedke relax in the cafeteria. 3 Class officers get a lot of practice posing. 4 The Junior Class wishes to remember Richard Denny who was killed by lightning during 1985. He had many friends who will always remember him with love.

Class of '88 Officers and Representatives

The Sophomore class officers and representatives worked very hard throughout the year raising money and planning activities for events such as Spirit week. The leaders did a fine job setting examples for their fellow classmen

David Mackie was elected president, Tom Bettis was vice-president, Barbara Card was secretary, and Don Moss served as class treasurer. The class representatives were Hope Woods, Tricia Nowitzke, Debbie Tarnowski, Scott Stoll and Michelle Canterbury

1 Don Moss, Barbara Card, and Dave Mackie unwind after going over class finances. 2. Dave Mackie proudly shows off his officers. 3. Dave Mackie and Barbara Card go over fund raising paperwork. 4. Sophomores show off their classy float

Class of '89

In the beginning of the year, the Freshman class elected Trenton Burton for their president. To help him with his job was Richie Clements, vice-president, Renae Thompson, secretary, and Jody Taylor, treasurer. The Freshman representatives are Jeff Ashe, Jenni Calhoun, Michelle Mink, Stephanie Johnson, and Kathy Gaziel.

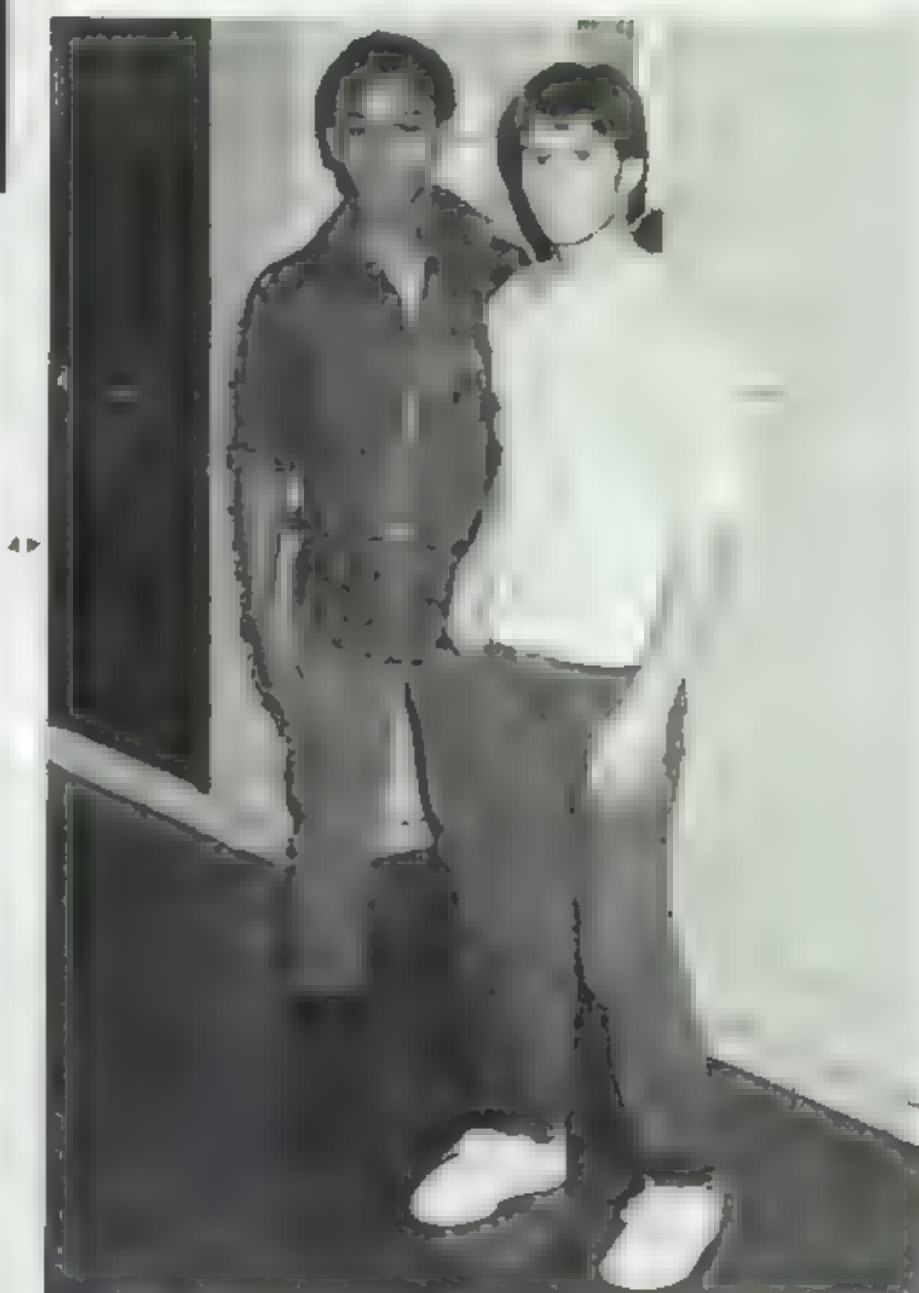

These officers and representatives worked hard to make their Freshman year one to remember.

Debate Squad Triumphs

Another fine year of Debate has passed. The squad consisted of: affirmatives Candi Wood and Lisa Hill, and negatives Dale Bragg and David Mackie. Sandy Bargas was the alternate.

The squad mastered a 46 win and 32 loss record.

Highlighting the season, they took first place in the Metro Detroit Novice league, winning over 2nd place Detroit Catholic Central High School.

Team members received varsity letters, pins, and speaker plaques.

National Honor Society

Taylor Center has a very active chapter of the National Honor Society. Mr. Gene Paasinen, advisor, heads the Society which is made up of 25 members. To be invited to join the National Honor Society, a student must have a high grade point average and show that they have good citizenship and leadership qualities. The Ram Chapter of the N.H.S. elected Kelley Parcha president, Tonie Almas vice president, Tracy Elwartowski secretary, and Lena Hardin treasurer. The Society members sold carnations at Easter, held the Spinster Dance during March, and have raised enough money to purchase sashes and pins for the graduation ceremonies in June.

1. The National Honor Society members pose for a picture 2. President Kelley Parcha discusses business with her fellow members. 3. Dwayne Dutcher, Satvir Deol, Steve Chorian, and Bill Hoenicke smile for the camera 4. Jeff Fader and Russell Hnidy discuss future plans for the National Honor Society 5. Mr. Gene Paasinen is the advisor for the National Honor Society

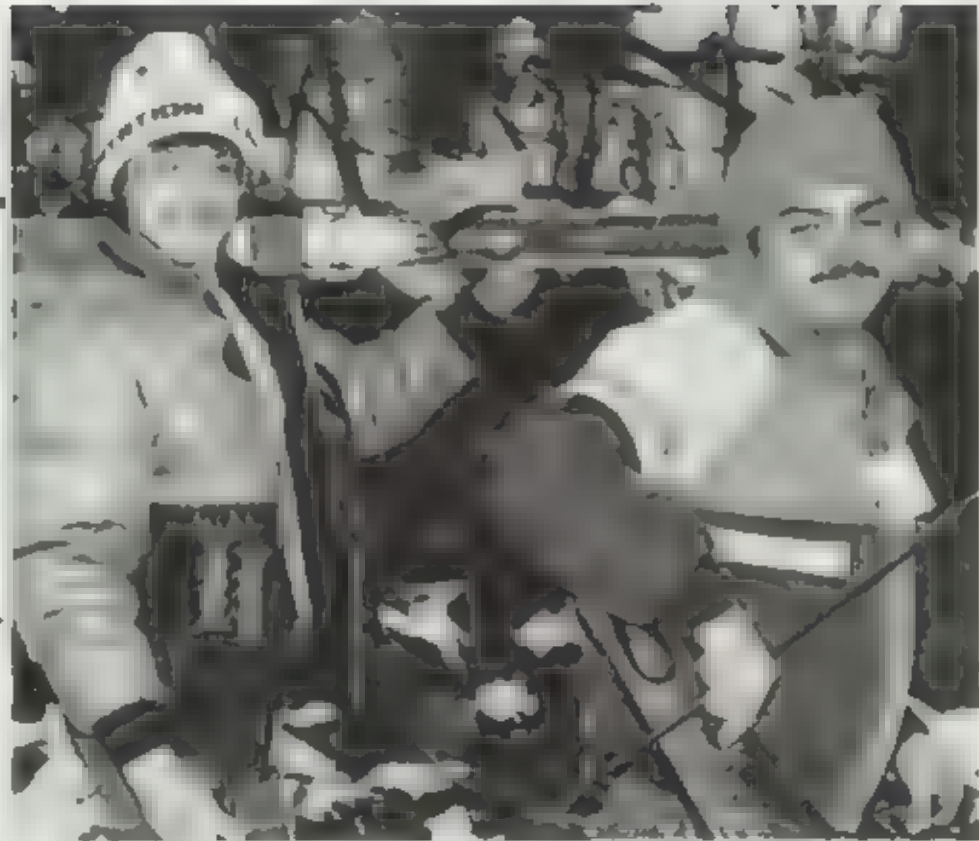

This is a fine example of how yearbook students get around Taylor Center grounds to find that certain something that makes the Rampage special. Under the direction of Ms. Jacqueline Kampfert the 1985-86 Rampage Staff managed to compile one of the best ever published Taylor Center yearbooks. Staff members include: seniors; Don Aichin, Beth Boike, Jim Boyd, Kim Carter, Shari Charboneau, Jackie Gwess, Eric Lawson, Janice Miniuk, Al Mortensen, Dawn Mott; Juniors Mary Canterbury, Wynn Foor, Ken Gilreath, Liz Kelly, Nancy Murray, Cyndi Simons; Sophomores; Dale Michelle Canterbury Tina Dave Mack e Amy Mott

2. Brian Boswell uses the drillpress to complete a project. 3. Two vocational students work on the lathe in machine tools class. 4. Do we really have to have all this stuff? 5. Welding class sure gets students all fired up

Vocational Classes

An interesting part of the Taylor School District is the Career Center. Vocational classes range from auto mechanics to photography and graphic arts to nursing dental and medical office assistants through cosmetology. Welding, machine tools, building trades and food services are more of the varied classes students can take. The Career Center serves Taylor students and students from surrounding school districts.

The purpose of the Career Center is to teach students skills needed to get jobs after they graduate.

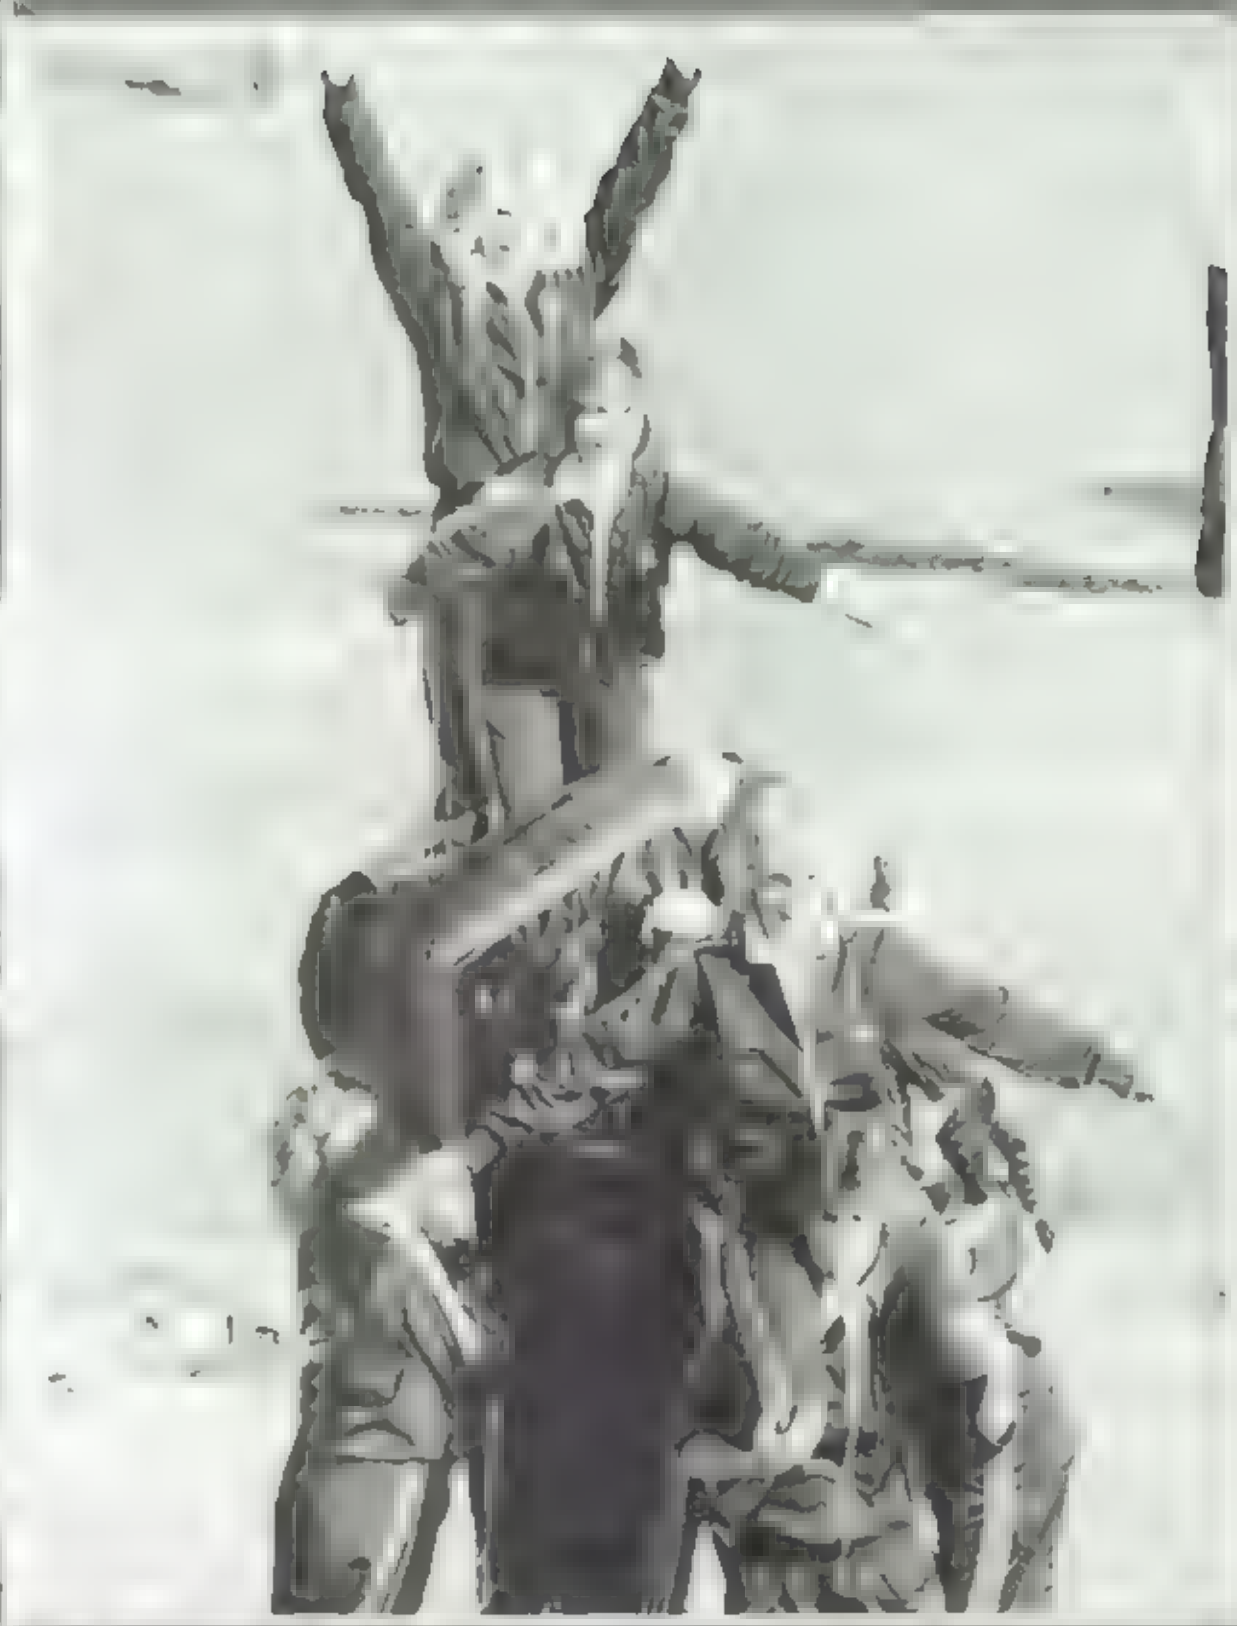

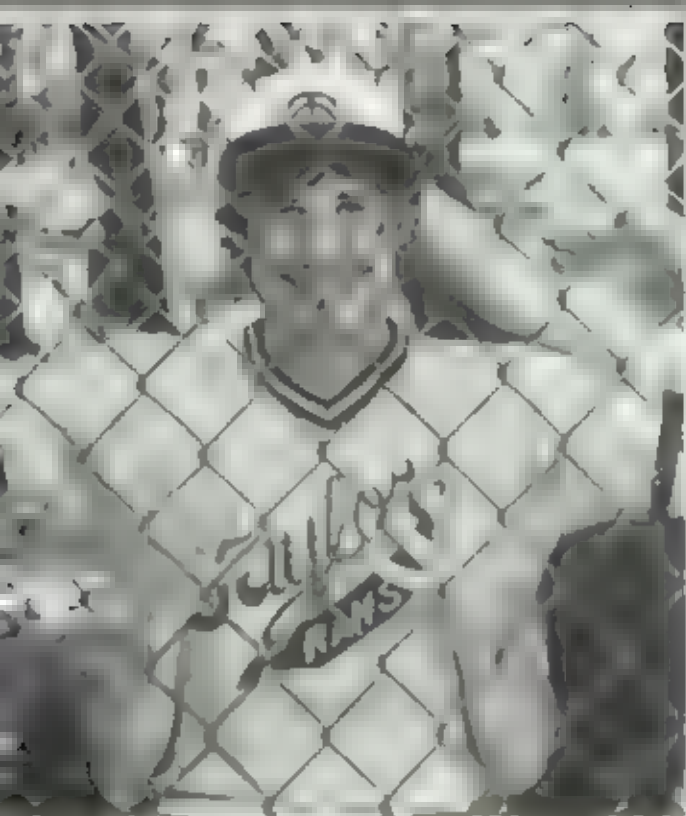

Career Center principal, Mr. B. Vandette and Vocational director, Dr. Paul Lammers are proud of the variety and quality of the classes that are offered. Mrs. Beverly Gentelia, job placement specialist, helps students find employment both before and after graduation.

1. Trust me! This will hurt only a little bit. 2 Brian Cooney should pay more attention to what he is doing. 3. A vocational student concentrates on driving the hi-low 4. A student makes a print in Graphic Arts

by Don Alchin and Kim Carter

The 1985-86 Varsity Rams completed their season with a 4-5 record. The Rams tied with Romulus and Truman in the Metro-West Conference. The Rams' Head Coach was Mr. Ken Avery and his assistant coaches were Craig James and Ron Vesprimi.

On November 19, 1985 the Awards Banquet was held in Taylor Center's cafeteria. Awards were presented to Mike Woodward for team captain and best defensive player. Ken Owens received two awards for being the best offensive and defensive back and most valuable player. Other awards were given to John Gurzick for most improved player, Sam Lambert for the Jack Suber Award (G.P.A.), Mike Spisak for the best offensive and defensive lineman, and Ken Althouse was awarded the Coach's Award.

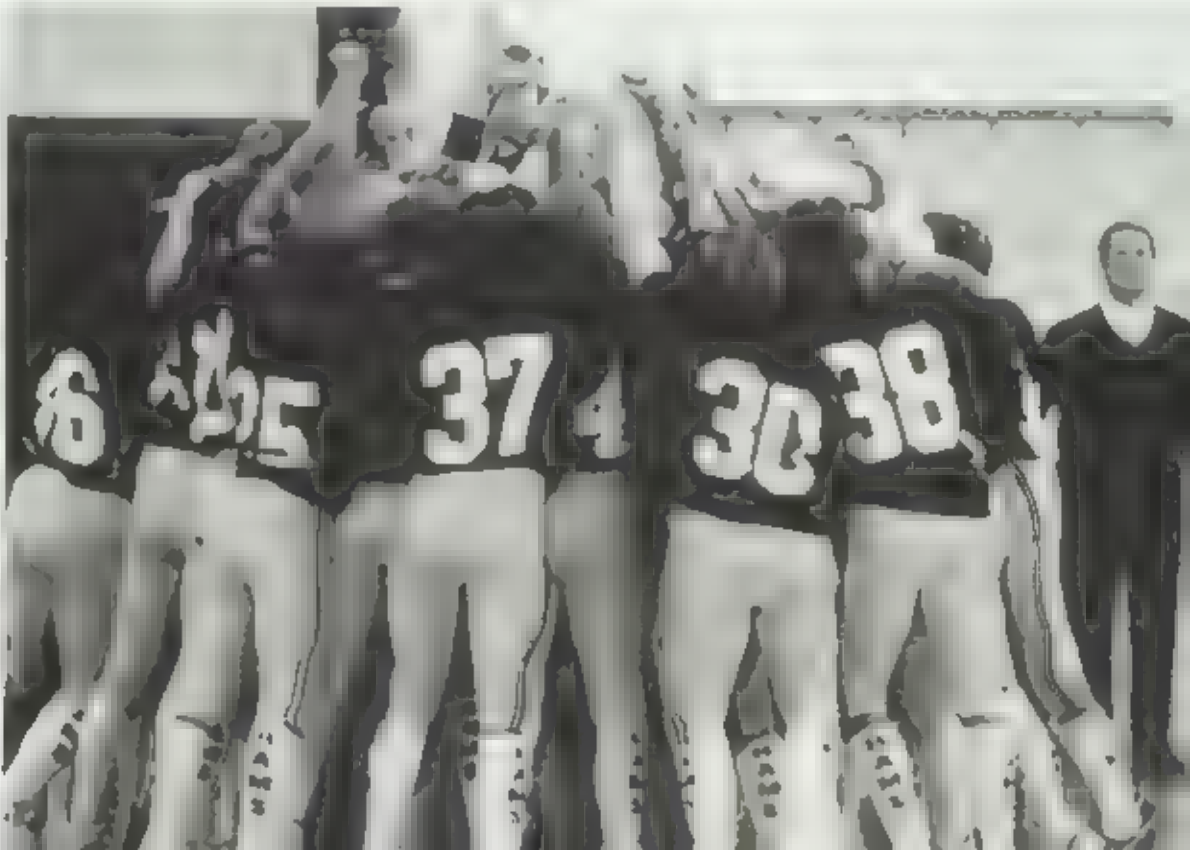

The All-League Honors consisted of two teams, both including an offense and a defense. First team offense was Shawn Brewer, Walt Gibson and Ken Owens. First team defense was Don Alchin, John Gurzick, and Mike Woodward. The second team offense was Sam Lambert, Scott Meade, and Mark Spisak. The defense was Bill Green, Terry Holt, Mike Lisznyai, and Charlie Mitchell.

All the leagues in the Downriver area were joined together to form an All Area Squad, which consisted of a first and second team defense. The first team honors went to John Gurzick, Ken Owens, and Mike Woodward. The second team honors went to Bill Green and Mike Lisznyai. Included in those awards were four honorable mentions: Don Alchin, Walt Gibson, Scott Meade, and Charlie Mitchell.

Junior Varsity Has Winning Season

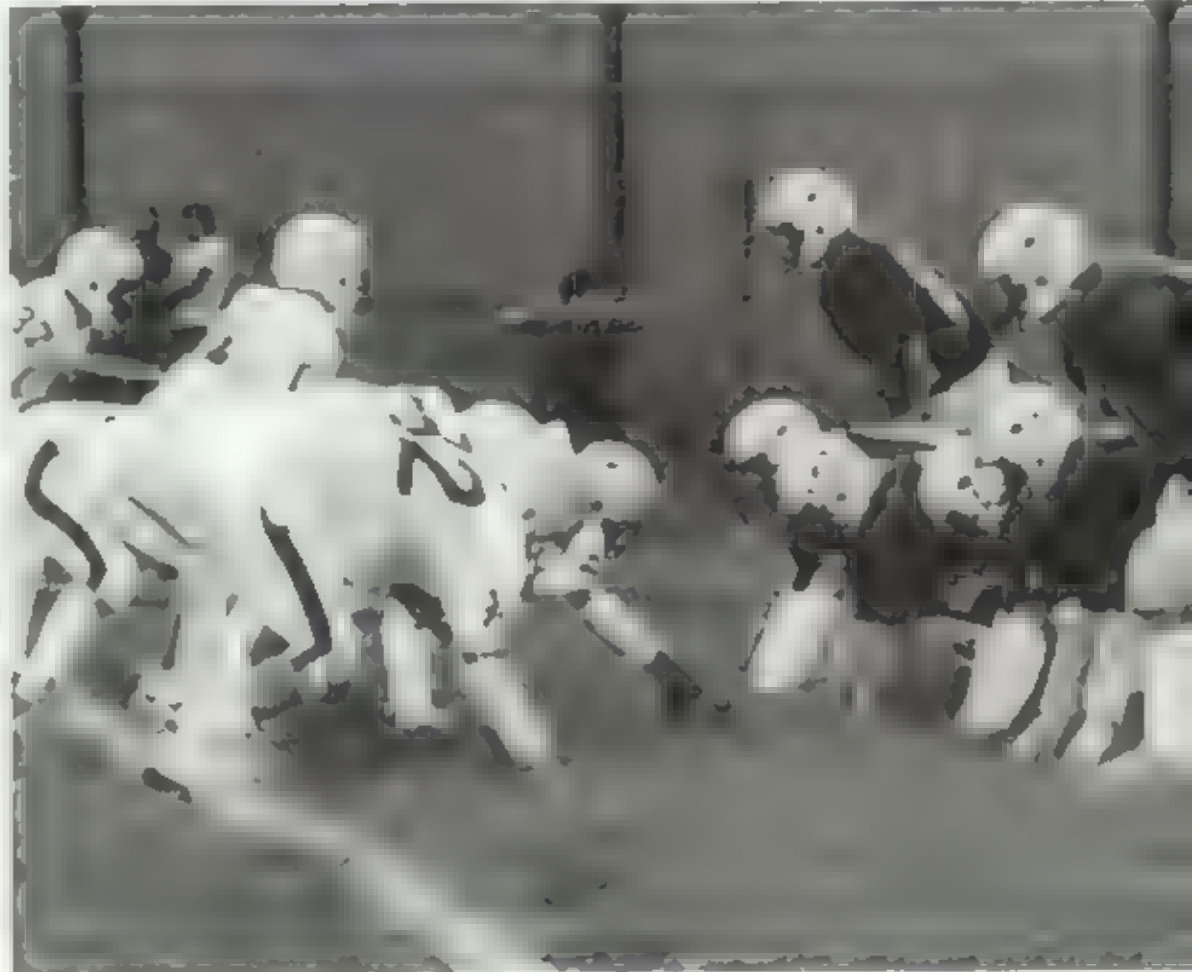

by Don Alchin, Kim Carter and Lanny Hall

The 1985-86 Junior Varsity Rams football team dominated the Metro-West league with a record of 6 wins and 2 losses. The team's dynamic effort earned the League title.

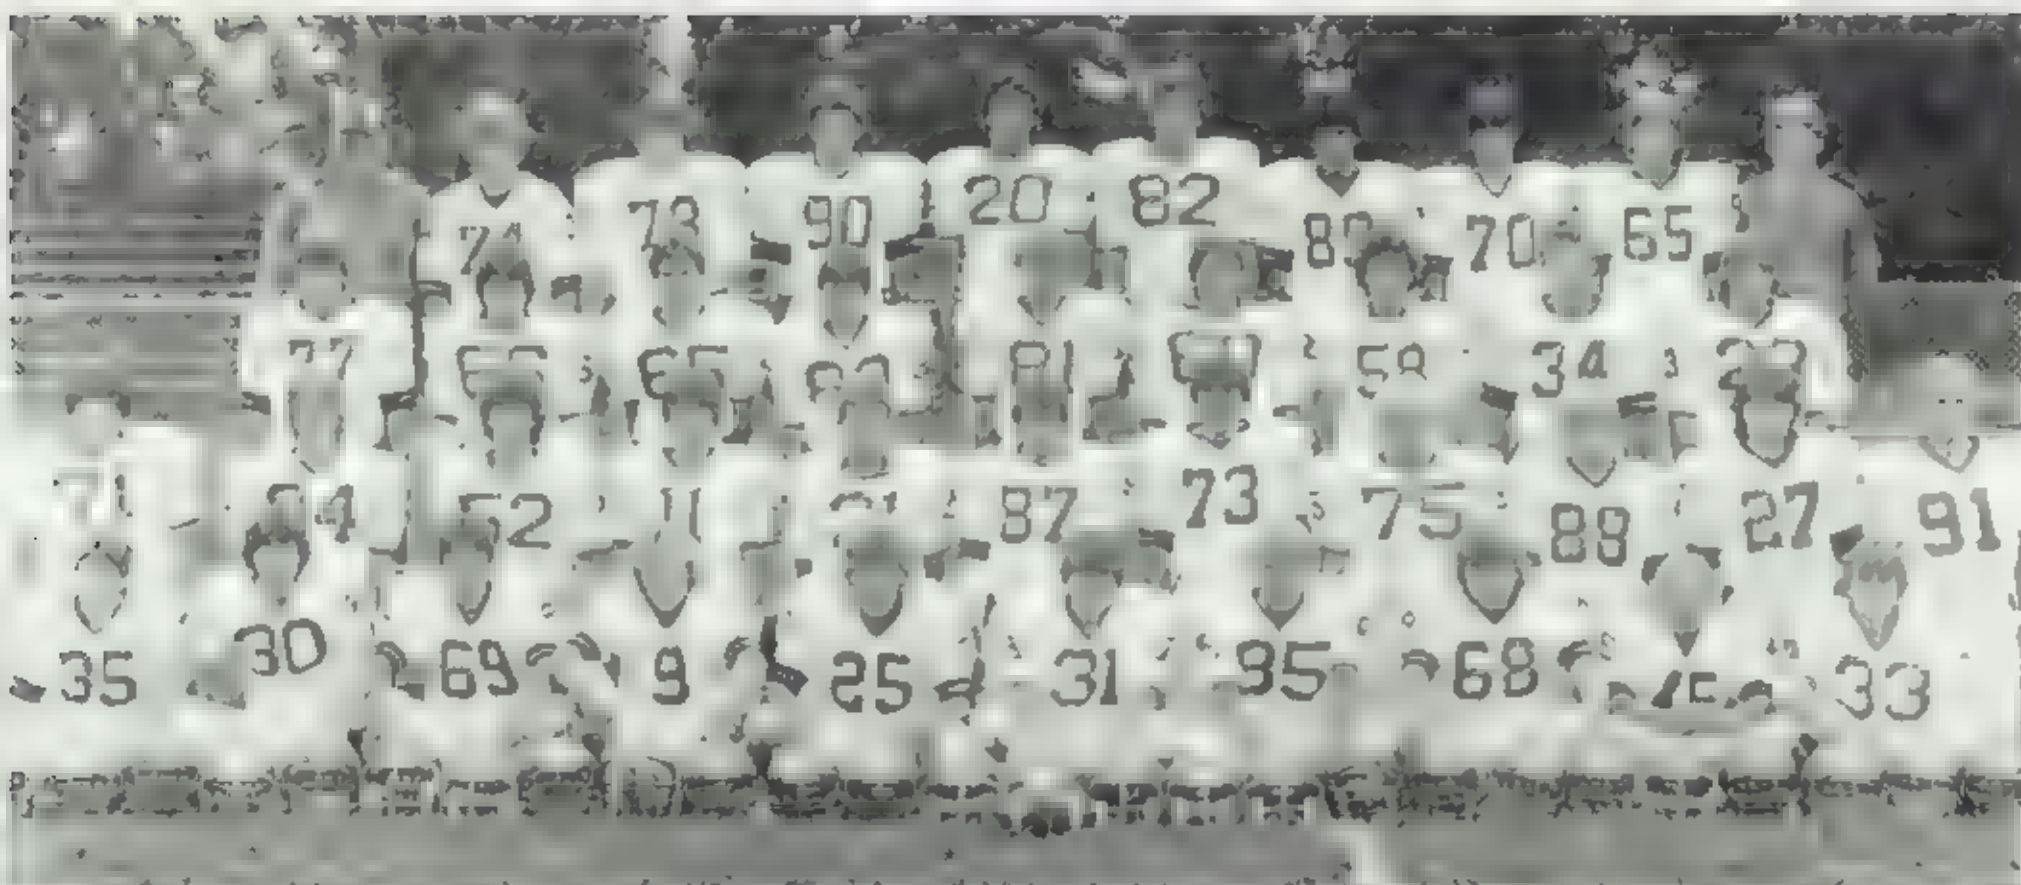

During the Football Banquet on November 19, 1985, several players were recognized for outstanding effort. The awards were: Best Back, Ed Alazazi; Coaches Award, Jeff Lamarand; Team Captain, Jeff Reiter; Most Valuable Player, Steve Rusnak; and Best Lineman, Mike Wilkenson.

Varsity Cheerleaders "Steppin' Up"

The Varsity Cheerleading squad during the 1985-86 season consisted of the following: one Senior, eight Juniors, and one Sophomore. They planned exciting and original cheers which they executed well. The squad enjoyed all their pep rallies and were especially pleased with their "silent cheer". The Cheerleaders did a lot to keep the spirits up and to get the fans r-o-w-d-y. The girls kept busy with three practices and 2 games a week. Coached by former cheerleaders, Kelli Gibbons and Kelli Markarian, the squad was always enthusiastic about the football and basketball teams

J.V. Cheerleaders Spark Spirit

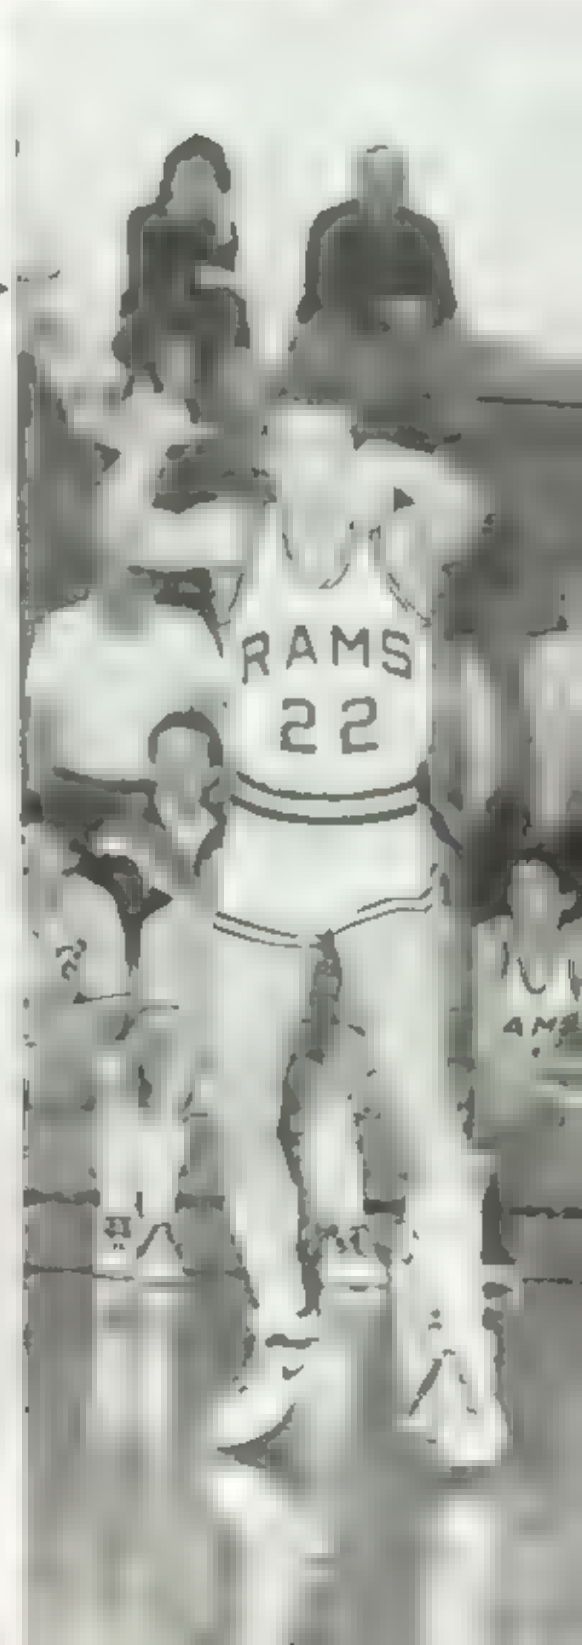

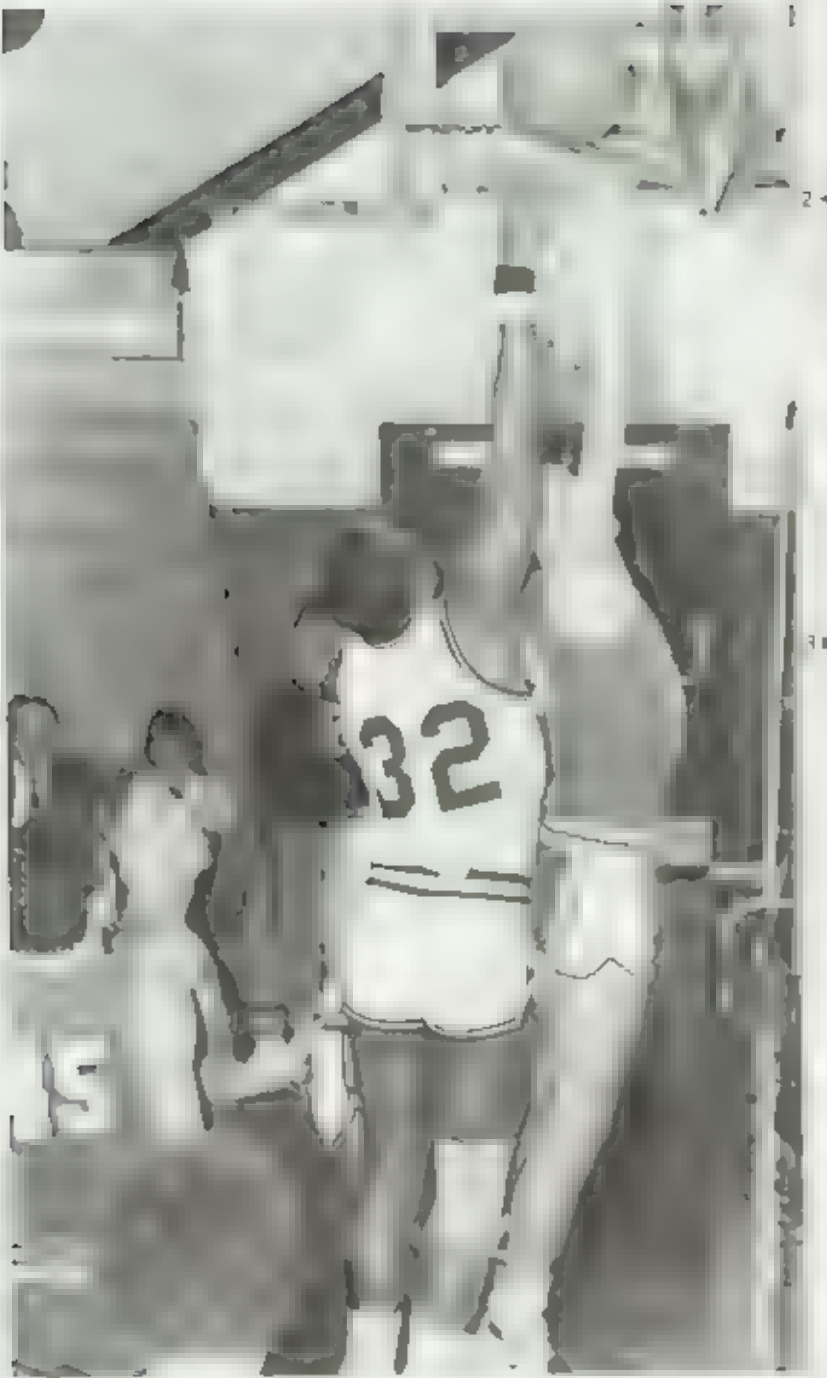

Jan Wallin, a former Taylor Center Cheerleader, coached the 1985-86 Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. The squad was made up of eleven girls. The girls put in many hours of work raising money to buy new uniforms. The J.V. Cheerleaders began practice last spring and kept the spirit alive for all the activities through the spring. They cheered for the basketball and football teams during the season.

1. Melanie McGue, Char Adams, Karrie Savola, and Hope Woods watch and wait to see who gets the jump ball. 2. The J.V. Cheerleaders do their HELLO stunt. 3. Coach Jan Wallin and Michele Mink cheer at the Homecoming game.

The Junior Varsity basketball team finished a great season with a record of 13-6. A few of the losses were lost in overtime, after the players had played tremendously competitive games. The purpose of the J.V. team is to prepare the players for the Varsity team. Such was the case this year when Aaron Lehr and Frank Lucas were brought up to Varsity. Mr. Michael Jamula, J.V. coach feels there is no "starting line". Any individual can start, depending on his performance at the practices preceding the game. When asked how he feels about the '86-87 season, Mr. Jamula replied, "With the returning freshmen now on the team and those coming from Hoover and West, I feel the season should be as productive as this year."

J.V. Basketball Wins 13-6

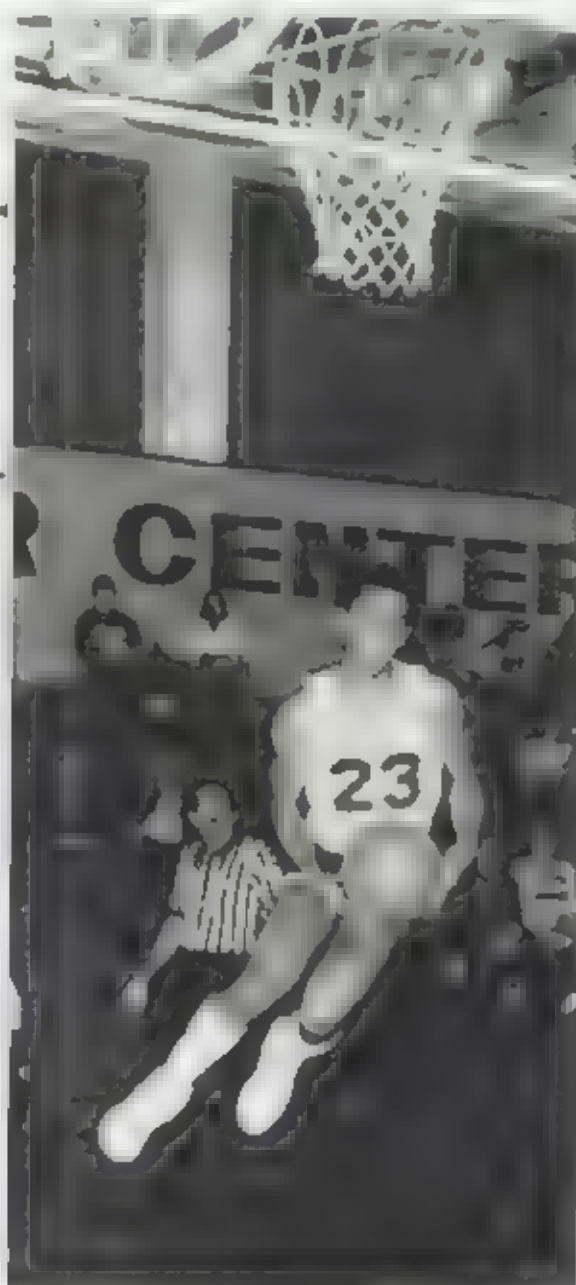

1. J.V. players take a break during a time-out. 2. Frank Lucas scores 2 more for the Rams. 3. Coach Jamula, Mike Adams, Dave Hamilton, and Ed Alazazi watch the game intensely. 4. The Ram team huddles to discuss strategy.

Varsity Pom-Pon Shows 'Em Up

The 1985-86 Varsity Pom-Pon squad consisted of 6 Seniors 3 Juniors, 4 Sophomores, and 2 Freshmen. The girls created new eye-catching routines for football games, basketball games, and pep assemblies. The girls attended a summer camp at Hope College in Holland Michigan, July 11-14. The squad earned 2 first place ribbons, 1 third place ribbon for speed-learning routines, and a second place trophy for their kickline routines. They also attended a Mid-American competition and were placed 6th in the state. Advisor Charlene LeBlanc helped the squad run smoothly and efficiently. Grace Yanchula, the coach, aided with new ideas and gave everyone the encouragement to do her best. Captain Christie McCarthy provided routines and enthusiasm to the Varsity Pom-Pon squad.

LADY RAMS HAVE A SUCCESSFUL SEASON

by Holly Botsley

The 1985-86 Taylor Center Girls' Basketball Team was made up of seniors June Alford, Tammy Ballard, Correen Love; juniors Lisa Jamula, Mary Maly, Carrie Young; sophomores Holly Botsley, Cathy Kemp, Kelli Lizewski, Chris Wallaker; and freshmen April Althouse and Rene Thompson. In the regular season, the girls, coached by Mr. Mike Leever, finished with a 10 win, 10 loss record. In the district tournament, they succeeded to the district championship game by defeating Dearborn High and rival Kennedy, only to fall to rival Truman in a highly emotional game. The Lady Rams were lead by Lisa Jamula in scoring, but a fine effort was put forth by the entire team for an excellent season.

Varsity Baseball

Taylor Center High School's 1985 baseball team had an outstanding season. The team finished the spring season with a 20-10 record and tied Truman High School for the Metro-West League title.

The team was made up of students of all levels. They were Skeeter Blevins, Mark Boike, Scott Cull, Rob Holland, Mark Sims, Dave Smith, Mike Branam, Terry Holt, Rob Jamula, Sam Lambert, Jeff Lizewski, Kenny Owens, Tim Stapula, Scott Binge, Mike Boyle and John Moss. The team was coached by Mr. Ken Avery and assistant coach Mr. Lenny Mancowski.
